1. Introductions
2. Jim Phillips – Speaker for My Health My Way
3. Notes of the last meeting and any matters arising – Doreen Harris has stepped down from being vice-chair, no new vice-chair appointed, members to contact me if they would like to be considered
TOR – will be amended due to the meetings being held quarterly not bi-monthly – PJC actioned
4. Practice Update – PJC discussed that each North Dorset Practice will join to be a Federated company, this is due to Public Health Enhanced Services only dealing with larger provider groups, the main objective of the Federation is to maintain our Public Health services that we already provide – PJC stressed that the Federation is in the early stages and that the Federation company will not affect the GP practices.
5. Future Events – Further information from Keith Harrison and Alan Harrison with regards to the Health and Wellbeing event 2015 being held in the Digby Hall Sherborne, on June 24th from 12noon to 5pm, invites have been sent to many service providers, all agreed that the practice should take part – further information to follow.

Dementia Steering Group – Alan informed the group that on 19th May 2015 the Abbey will be holding a Dementia event, more to follow

From 1st April Sherborne will have its own BMV magazine.
6. Out of Hours information – RB would like to know what happens after the surgery closes – Keith Harrison will put together a leaflet which explains the procedure, this will included walk in clinic times, Yeatman information etc
7. Patient Questionnaire – all members agreed to meet again on Thursday 12th March from 3pm to look at the results of their own patient questionnaire – Update on Friends and Family Test, very good feedback

8. Saturdays – Ideas for an open day on a Saturday – to be brought to the next meetings poss update on vaccinations/meet your GP
